

Anglia Notes May 2018

Wow we are into the fifth month of 2018 already yet it only seems like yesterday that it was Christmas. They say that time seems to go faster the older you get, well in that case I must be very old!

Just some of the major Anglia Centre events that are already organised for this summer are.

Concours and Pride of Ownership at MG Live!

MG Live! on the weekend of the 2nd and 3rd of June would not be the same without the Concours and Pride of Ownership organised by the Anglia Centre. Originality and attention to detail will once again be to the fore.

The Anglia Centre will be having a stand in the main area in conjunction with the Caledonian Centre following last year's success.

If you could help out on the stand for some of the weekend it would be greatly appreciated and could entitle you to a free ticket, contact Mike Pelling compsec@mgccanglia.com if you can help.

Anglia Summer Picnic

The 1st of July sees the Summer Picnic visit Felbrigg Hall. A 17th century National Trust property in Norfolk. The estate set in 520-acre grounds, includes a walled garden, a working dovecote and the national collection of Colchicums.

There will be exclusive parking and picnic area for MGCC members. Details can be found on the Anglia Centre website or see the full-page advert in this month's Safety Fast!

Queen Vic

The ever-popular Anglia Centre 'Queen Vic' Car Show will be held on July 8th, at the 'Billericay Summer Fest' on the common in the heart of the village.

There will be around 200 places available if you would like to show your classic car, see the website for details.

Thanks to our sponsor Peter Best Insurance, entry is free as is on-site parking for visitors.

East Anglian Tour

The Anglia Centre headline event towards the end of summer is our three-day tour in September.

Based at the luxurious Ufford Park Golf and Spa Hotel in Suffolk, it including dinner and breakfast at the Hotel plus an all-day tour on the Saturday along with a cruise on a Mississippi Paddle Boat.

There are far too many attractions to list but you can find more detail on the website and a booking form in this month's Safety Fast!

At the time of writing there are still a few places left but be quick if you do not want to be disappointed
